and Flashcards

My ABC Bible Verses

These charts were made to go with Susan Hunt's My ABC Bible Verses: Hiding God's Word in Little Hearts published by Crossway.

Each letter of the alphabet has a Bible Verse, a story, comprehension questions, and a prayer.

Ages: 3-10ish

How young is too young? If a child is able to remember words to their favorite songs or able to sing the ABC song, they are ready to begin memorizing scripture! Their amazing, God-designed minds are little sponges waiting to be filled.

We have loved going through this book with our 3 year old! The verses and stories have convicted/challenged/encouraged us as well.

How to do it: You can really do it any way you want! We like to read the story and practice the verses at breakfast. Sometimes we talk about the verse of the day again at dinner.

1 Verse a week

Monday: Read the story and practice the verse several times

Tuesday-Friday: Review the same verse every day that week along with any verses from the previous weeks.

Saturday: Review all verses and get a sticker for this week's verse.

Sunday: Rest and prepare for worship

2 verses a week

Monday: Read letter A story, practice letter A verse

Tuesday: Read letter A story, practice letter A verse (again)

Wednesday: review all verses learned

Thursday: Read letter B story, practice letter B verse

Friday: Read letter B story, practice letter B verse

Saturday: Review all verses learned. Put a sticker on the sticker chart for this week's verses.

Sunday: Rest and prepare for worship

Since memorizing God's Word is sweet to our souls, we decided to do a donut treat once letters A-M were memorized. We are planning to go to our favorite ice cream place once N-Z are memorized.
